

Qualifa's Modern Slavery Act Statement

Qualifa is a global business to business lead generation business. We have a number of employees worldwide, including UK, US and Singapore.

We are committed to delivering high standards of corporate governance and a key element of this is managing the business in a socially responsible way. The business aims to employ the highest ethical and professional standards and always to comply with all local laws and regulations applicable to our business. Qualifa is absolutely committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking in its corporate activities. Qualifa also expects the same high standards which we set for ourselves from those parties with whom we engage, such as our suppliers and customers.

Due to the nature of our business and our approach to governance, we assess that there is low risk of slavery and human trafficking in our business. However we aim to periodically review the effectiveness of the relevant policies and procedures that we have in place.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our businesses slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ended January 2017.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Chris Wilmot', with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Chris Wilmot
Chief Financial Officer
Qualifa Ltd

Date: 12th June 2017